

Getting Started

There are various ways to structure your planned gift, each with its unique advantages and considerations:

- Make a bequest in your will.
- Establish a charitable trust.
- Name The Westport Library as a beneficiary of your retirement account or life insurance policy.
- Explore other creative options.

Our team is here to assist you in finding the most suitable approach that aligns with your philanthropic goals and financial situation.

The Westport Library Legacy Society

When you include The Westport Library in your estate plans, you become a cherished member of our Legacy Circle. Our planned giving society celebrates the generosity and foresight of individuals like you who have chosen to make a lasting impact on the Library.

Your planned gift to The Westport Library is a testament to your commitment to lifelong learning, cultural enrichment, and community well-being. By choosing to support our mission in this way, you ensure that future generations can benefit from the same valuable resources and opportunities that make our library a treasured institution today.

At The Westport Library, we cherish the values of knowledge, community, and innovation. Our commitment to serving as a vibrant center of learning and culture is made possible through the generosity and dedication of our supporters. Planned giving is a unique opportunity for you to leave a lasting legacy that supports our library for generations to come.

Leave Your Legacy

Planned giving is a thoughtful and strategic approach to philanthropy that allows you to have a meaningful impact on The Westport Library's future while enjoying financial benefits for yourself and your loved ones. By including us in your estate plans, you become an essential part of our ongoing mission to empower our community through knowledge, creativity, and innovation.

The Westport Library is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization.

Your planned gift:

- Is fully tax deductible.
- Could reduce your estate taxes.
- Could avoid capital gain taxes.
- Invests in the future of the Library and our community.
